Sermon Tonight

One of the most delightful features of the commencement exercises of Anderson college was the banquet given by the Senior class last night at Hotel Chicquola, with their sponsor, Miss Sara Stranathan as chaperone. The place cards were attractive menu cards tied with the class colors of purple and white.

The toast was as follows, with Miss Lou Nello McGee as toast mistress.

"The Trials and Tribulations of Being a Sponsor," By Miss Stranathan.

"Alone in the Wide Wide World," Miss Turberville.

"Wine, Woman and Song," Miss Gentry.

"Sweethearts and Husbands," Miss Traynham.

"The Friends We Leave Behind Us," Miss Henry.

"To Meet to Love, and Then to Part," Miss Sullivan.

These were all especially good, and were the source of much merriment. The whole occasion being delightfully informal and pleasant. The evening ended with the singing of the Alma Mater.

The menu was as follows: Chicken Soup, Olives, Pickles, Fillet of Sole, Tartar Sauce, Saratoga Chips, Broiled Chicken on Toast, Asparagus Tips, Sifted Peas, Lettuce and Tomato Salad, Mayonnaise Mints, Ginger, Sauté Almond, Ice Cream, Cake, Coffee.

This morning at the First Baptist church the sermon before the Y. W. C. A., will be preached by Dr. Philip J. McLean of Alken, and this evening at 8:30 Dr. McLean will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class. A special musical program has been arranged for both services.

On Monday afternoon at half past four the Class Day Exercises will be held on the College Campus, and promises to be very attractive. The feature of the commencement, the Daisy Chain will be composed of the Seniors and Juniors, and after the singing of the college song, the following program will be given: Address of Welcome by the Class President, Miss Lou Nello McGee; Class History, by Miss Nello Douthett, song "Alma Mater," Class Prophecy by Miss Louisa Henry. Class will read by Mr. H. H. Watkins, class-executor.

The final exercises will be held on Monday evening in the college auditorium, at which time the diplomas will be presented to the Senior class. R. medal for the best essay on "Parties and Leaders of S. C.," during the Revolution." After this Mr. H. H. Watkins, chairman of the board of trustees of Anderson college will deliver the diplomas.

The following charming and attractive young women compose the class of 1916: Misses Ruth Anderson, Helen Burris, Nello Douthett, Nello Gentry, Margarette Henry, Louise Henry, Nello Martin, Ethel Norris, Sara Prince, Maggie Shirley, Izetta Pruitt, Felicia Brown, Catherine Sullivan, Eula May Turberville, Grace Watkins, Karan Traynham, and Lou Nello McGee.

CORN AND PIG CLUBS MAKE FINE PROGRESS

SOME OF BOYS AND GIRLS
STARTED LATE, NOW
FORGING AHEAD

Farm Demonstration Agent Byars Tells of Visits He Made to Different Sections

I have spent several days within the last two weeks visiting members of the corn and pig clubs," said Mr. S. M. Byars, farm demonstration agent yesterday. Some of the boys and girls got a late start with the club work this year, but I am certainly well pleased with the character of the work done in organizing the work I tried to enlist only the boys and girls who would stick to the work through the entire season and make a report of the work at the end of the season. That we have selected the right boys and girls is evidenced by the fact that only a few have dropped out and this has been due to such causes as sickness and other similar causes.

"I have not been able to see all of the boys and girls that are in the clubs," he continued, but I have seen about forty and each is thoroughly aroused and doing good work. All of the corn club boys visited have their corn up to a good stand and well cultivated. The pigs are fine and growing fast. Girls and boys are both eligible to complete in the pig club. We have more girls than boys in the pig club in Anderson county and the girls are certainly going to make the boys sit up and take notice before the year is over.

"Next week I expect to visit the remainder of the boys and girls that have not yet been visited." Corn club members visited this week who have their corn well under way are Henry Cooper, Darwin Davis, Palmer Gillard, John Gillispie, John Lenderman, John Martin, Enoch Pepper, David Spearman, Oscar Spearman, Frank Thompson, Thad Tripp, Clyde White, John Dunlap, Bruce Wilson, Lee Pruitt.

The following named members of the pig club have their pigs and are feeding according to instructions and keeping monthly records of the feeds consumed, weight gained and the average cost per pound gained: Harold Copeland, Helen Smith, Jennie Armstrong, Maybess Campbell, Lola Drake, Gertrude Foster, Helen Gassaway, John Gillispie, Montes Henderson, Ralph Ovinga, Albert Stewart, Willie Tripp, Jack Tripp, Eugene Turner, Pickens Whitaker, Thomas Pinley, Tiny Pruitt, Sue Shirley, Mabell Merritt, Willie May Wyatt, Nell Cobb, Carl Tripp, Frank LaBoon, Gordon Keyser, Roseman Finley.

Two sets of prizes are being arranged for, one for the pigs that are being raised for slaughter and the other for those that are being raised for breeding purposes. A list of these prizes will be announced later or as soon as it is completed.

NEARLY TEN YEARS OF TESTS PROVE CROW ELK-HART CAR PRINCIPLES SUCCESSFUL

An important truth about the new Crow Elk-hart '30" which is being displayed by D. P. and W. P. Sloan, local representatives of the Crow Motor Car company, is the fact that its principles of construction have been proved successful over nearly a decade of time with thousands of cars on the road.

There are few cars in the United States today that can point to as successful a record for the principles of construction which they embody. Some histories of Crow cars are interesting. The local representatives have reports of one car that accomplished 140,000 miles and is still running and no one apparently knows when it will be out of business. Other cars have records from 40,000 to 100,000 miles. It is a very unusual thing for people to drive to the Crow factory and to express their joy over the fact that their car has run 40,000 to 60,000 miles without needing the repairman, other than for minor adjustments.

The sturdiness of the new car, the wonderful way in which it tops hills and surmounts some of the worst obstacles in the country in the way of roads, mountains, etc., and are evidence enough for local people that this is an unusual car.

Local authorities point out the fact that there are few cars in the country with a nearly a decade of successful service behind their principles of construction. This is the assurance that local people have in making their selection in this big value automobile.

NEW CHINA PREMIER NO MEAN EXECUTIVE

Tuan Chi-Jui Well Versed In Affairs of State. Friends of President Kai

(By Associated Press.)

Peking, June 3.—China's new premier, General Tuan Chi-Jui, is no stranger to public affairs in his country. Past sixty years of age, he has been identified prominently with the army for more than half of his life and is representative of much that is best in the new China movement, at the same time being considered acceptable to the great mass of his compatriots who cherish China's old ideals.

The General and President Yuan Shi-kai have been life-long friends, although their long association is official life did not deter Tuan Chi-Jui from resigning from the Ministry of War in his executive's cabinet when it became apparent that the government was favoring the restoration of the monarchy.

Tuan Chi-Jui is a reformer without being an absolute iconoclast. He would not destroy that which is dear to old China, according to his constituents, but rather would have it conform to new conditions.

The Premier's home is a modern European house, situated in a walled compound in the northeastern section of Peking. A great garden which in April is bright with cherry blossoms and flowering shrubs surrounds the residence. At one end of the big brick structure is a semi-circular sun-parlor, unostentatiously furnished in a European style.

Fine Boy $10

Youth Borrowed Pliers and Robbed
Bottling Machine of Brass

Charles Fine, a youngster of this city was tried in police court Saturday morning for stealing brass, found guilty and fined $10. His method in securing brass was a novel one, though his system proved to be a rather difficult one to follow.

The lad went to Sloan's garage on West Earle street early in the day and stated that some gentlemen sent him there to borrow a pair of pliers. He secured the pliers and went off. He went to the Coca-Cola bottling works and there found an old bottling machine, one that is not now in use, but still a valuable machine. With the pliers the lad screwed and twisted nearly every piece of brass from the machine and carried it off. In this way he wrecked a really valuable machine, securing for his pains several odd cents paid him for the brass as scrap.

This practice has about been stopped in Anderson. Last summer not a vacant house in the city was free from the petty rogues, who took every available piece of brass, lead pipe of other metal they could carry away. Many homes were stripped of all plumbing to such an extent that it cost the owners a considerable amount to have them fitted up in condition to rent.
